Daitch Returns To Face Charges

Joel C. Daitch, 19, who was the object of a search by postal authorities for alleged mail fraud, and who was found last month "relaxing in the sun" in Rio de Janeiro, has been returned to Chicago to face the charges against him.

Postal investigators recently picked Daitch up in New York with the cooperation of Immigration authorities when he voluntarily returned with his attorney and his father who had made the trip to Brazil in an effort to get young Daitch to return.

Officials said that Daitch has been released on $5,000 bond pending trial.

Daitch obtained a passport last September 10 and disappeared four days later, while authorities in Chicago were investigating complaints that had begun to pour in.

M. J. McGee, Chief postal inspector, Chicago area, said Daitch, who also used the name of Day, began running advertisements early last August offering coins for sale. He used his father's luggage shop as his "business address," McGee advised. The father said that the younger Daitch was never connected with the shop and "I know nothing about his coin operations."

A federal grand jury indicted Daitch on November 20 on a charge of using the mails to defraud coin collectors of as much as $50,000. The indictment pointed out that William Thomas of Findlay, Ohio, was bilked out of $6,000. Mrs. Birch E. Morgan of Piatt County, Ill., allegedly lost $130 to Daitch. She is the wife of a circuit court judge.

The maximum possible penalty upon conviction would be 55 years in prison and $11,000 fine.

No Confusion From New Notes

The new Federal Reserve $1 note has been introduced with a minimum of complaint and confusion, according to reports.
